UEFA DFLM application criteria

Application information

To apply for the UEFA DFLM, applicants must complete the online application form available at <https://uefaacademy.com/courses/dflm/> and submit it along with a CV, project PPT, short introductory video and an electronic photo of the candidate by the 31st October 2021.

The video should be no longer than three minutes. It should introduce the application and their motivation for taking part on the programme as well a mention about their project proposed for the programme. This video does not need to be of professional quality and can be filmed using a phone or computer.

The project PPT should be a presentation (max. 10 slides) introducing the project proposed (overview, timeline, goals, implementation and resources etc.).

Applications will be reviewed by UEFA and IDHEAP (University of Lausanne) during the month of November 2021. Zoom interviews may be requested for some participants. Successful application will be informed if their application has been accepted/rejected at the beginning of December 2021.

Criteria for applying

To be eligible for the UEFA DFLM programme, applicants must meet the following requirements:

- Have a managerial role within a football organisation
- Have completed the UEFA CFM programme with at least a grade 5 OR have over four years' experience working at a managerial level in a football organisation (club, national association, league, player's association etc.)
- Present a project that is aligned with their organisation's strategy
- Have a good command of English, both spoken and written
