FOREWORD

In today's ever-evolving football landscape, the role of the team manager has never been more pivotal. Team managers are now expected to navigate complex organisational dynamics, foster high-performance cultures, and embody the values of integrity, inclusion, and innovation that define modern football.

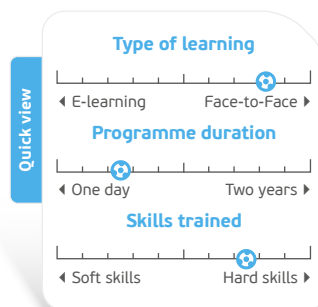

At UEFA, we recognise the immense responsibility carried by those who lead teams at all levels of the game. That is why we are proud to introduce this dedicated programme for team operations professionals – a unique initiative designed to empower current and aspiring leaders with the tools, insights, and network needed to thrive in this demanding role.

Theodore Theodoridis
UEFA General Secretary

UEFA Team Management Programme (UEFA TMP)

The UEFA TMP is the essential programme for professionals involved in team operations who want to elevate their leadership, strategic, and operational capabilities within elite football environments.

Programme overview

The UEFA Team Management Programme (UEFA TMP) is a specialised programme tailored for professionals currently working in or closely connected to team management and operations within elite European football.

As the demands on team managers continue to evolve, this programme provides a unique opportunity to strengthen the operational, strategic, and leadership capabilities required to thrive in today's high-performance football environment.

Drawing on UEFA's extensive competition experience and developed in collaboration with national team representatives, tournament specialists, and experts in areas such as project management, media, sponsorship, governance, and leadership, the UEFA TMP offers a rich blend of expert-led sessions grounded in real-world challenges, interactive workshops to apply learning in practical contexts, and peer learning to foster collaboration and shared insights.

Participants will gain practical tools and strategic perspectives to operate effectively within team structures, manage complex operations, and contribute to the success of their organisations both on and off the pitch.

By joining the UEFA TMP, participants also become part of a growing professional network committed to excellence in football management.

Through interactive sessions, case studies, and group work, participants will gain practical tools to manage complex team operations effectively.

Testimonials

“Working with national teams since 2006, I have come across various generations of people involved in team management. The area has evolved significantly over the years and the challenges of managing a team of players and staff have become more complex and demanding. With this course we hope to provide additional tools to those involved in elite football to become even better in what they do.”

■ Lars Hemkes, Senior Football Services Manager, UEFA

“I've had the honour of serving as Team Manager of the Croatian national team since 2014, a period marked by three major tournament medals and unforgettable moments for our country. Behind the scenes, our role is crucial as we ensure players and staff have what they need to succeed, while fostering trust, unity and top performance. It requires precision, organisation and strong communication. I'm proud to see more women entering this profession and I hope to see many more. This course is a great opportunity to share insights and grow together. I wish you all the best on this journey.”

■ Iva Olivari, Team Manager, Croatian National Football Team
